POLICY ON PRESERVATION OF DOCUMENTS

1. LEGAL FRAMEWORK

Pursuant to Regulation 9 of Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (“Listing Regulations”), all listed entities are required to formulate and put in place a Policy for Preservation of Documents classifying them into two categories:

- i. Documents whose preservation shall be permanent in nature; and
- ii. Documents to be preserved for not less than 8 years.

2. PREAMBLE

This policy aims to provide a framework for preserving and maintaining records of the Company. During the course of business, the Company generates several records either in physical or in electronic modes, some of the records are useful for a shorter span of time, hence such records are kept for a definite period of time, whereas some records may be needed to be kept permanently during the lifetime of the organization. In order to preserve such records, the Company needs to implement a well-considered, well-documented policy in order to ensure that they remain relevant and useful over a period of time.

3. OBJECTIVE

This policy sets the standards for managing, storing and preservation of documents of the Company, which are broadly classified in the following two categories:

- A) The documents, which are of a permanent nature (listed in Annexure 1), shall be maintained and preserved permanently by the Company, subject to the modifications, amendments, additions, deletions or any changes made therein from time to time.

Provided that all such modifications, amendments, additions, deletions in the documents shall also be preserved permanently by the Company.

- B) Other documents (listed in Annexure-2) shall be maintained and preserved by the Company for the term not less than eight years after completion of the relevant transactions or for such higher period as the Board may in its sole discretion determine in case to case basis, subject to the modifications, amendments, additions, deletions or any changes made therein from time to time.

Provided that all such modifications, amendments, additions or deletions in the documents shall also be preserved for a term not less than eight years.

Provided further that the Company may keep the documents as specified in clause (A) and clause (B) in electronic mode.

4. ADMINISTRATION

The Compliance Officer of the Company shall be in-charge of administration of this Policy and the implementation process and procedures to ensure that Documents Preservation Schedule is followed. The Compliance Officer is also authorised to make modifications to the Documents Preservation Schedule from time to time to ensure that it is in compliance with applicable laws.

5. PROCEDURE FOR DISPOSAL OF DOCUMENTS

In case of documents as specified in clause 3 (B) above, after the expiry of the specified retention period, with the prior approval of the Board, the preserved documents may be destroyed in such manner and under the supervisions and instructions given by the respective functional head, CFO or Compliance Officer, as the case may be. Destruction of documents as a normal administrative practice will also be followed for the records which are duplicate/unimportant/irrelevant.

Company shall maintain a register of records destroyed from time to time and respective entries therein shall be signed by respective functional head, CFO or Compliance Officer, as the case may be.

This applies to both Physical and Electronic Documents.

6. AMENDMENTS

The Board may, subject to the applicable laws, amend any provision(s) or substitute any of the provision(s) with the new provision(s) or replace this policy entirely with a new policy. However, no such amendment or modification shall be inconsistent with the applicable provisions of any law for the time being in force.

7. DISCLOSURE:

This Policy will be communicated to all operational employees and other concerned persons of the Company.
